

Hesketh Meadow Action Group

We would like to extend our acknowledgements and thanks to the following people or groups who have helped in bringing this issue as far as we have:

Ms Rachel Watkin and her staff at Halliwells Solicitors, Liverpool

Especially Rachel, who went beyond our greatest expectations in her support and guidance in this matter

Irena Gillette

who was the first person to bring this matter to the attention of the residents

Stuart Johnston

who spent endless hours researching this matter and found the possible Village Green solution, and for playing an active part on the Committee

Carolyn Doull and her soon-to-be husband, Nick who worked long and hard all the way through but particularly at the beginning in presenting an endless supply of questionnaires and the large A3 maps which were invaluable right through to the end

Eddie Thwaite

for the long hours spent reading mountains of documents, and all his local knowledge, contacts and advocate duties

Max Atkins

for creating and maintaining the HMAG website and arranging press coverage

Graham Young

who provided another set of eyes and ears in the run up to the Public Inquiry

Liz and Chris Brown

for all their letters to the Council and local papers

All HMAG members

many of whom have attended meetings week in and week out; who helped deliver and collect all the papers and flyers which the group has sent out and have donated money at every meeting

Lowton Labour Club, Denis plus all the staff for their endless support in allowing us have the room week and week and never charging us; for their hard work and support in helping us boost our funds from different events held here

The Shepherds Inn & The Robin Hood who allowed us to their facilities until we outgrew them due to increasing support

Peter Franzen and Sandy Franzen without whom we would have never had enough information or background to have even got this fight off the ground

Donald Hodgkinson

for his support, endeavours and information

Unison Trade Union

at Wigan, for the £150 donation

National Union of Teachers (NUT)

at Wigan, for the £150 donation

Joe Taylor from the Wigan Heritage Network for the £300 grant to HMAG; plus a private thanks to Joe for sharing all his knowledge, expertise and wisdom regarding the NWCAN

To the residents and businesses of Lowton and Golborne who filled in questionnaires, Witness Statements and sent in objections to Wigan Council; to everyone who attended the Public Inquiry; for your continued generosity, support and financial donations

Ginger and friends for providing support and £200+ donation at this year's Easter Egg Run

Jonathan Rutherford from the Guardian Newspaper who sent us endless papers he had written and researched on the PFI schemes and what it meant to the man in the street and your Council's future

Lesley Richards, Brian Gomm and fellow journalists who have allowed us to put across our side of the story

“Lowton & Golborne Local” Editor and fellow journalists for giving us valuable local press coverage of what was really happening

Gillian Turner

for sharing her long family history with the group and all the laminated signs “Save our Fields” etc

Tony Kilbryde

for his Open Day at Pit Stop in Pocket Nook Lane which provided additional funds

Norman Parry

for the creation and printing of the old Lowton Maps which helped raise funds

Sally Walker and Amanda Young for their hard work in providing the hamper and collecting all the other prizes at our events

Keith Fry

for his work as a Committee member and continued support for all her hard work creating fantastic floral art for raffles and the Staff at Volex for buying all the tickets!

Susan Rigby

Andy Burnham, James Grundy, and Ed Houlton who all voiced their concerns regarding problems around access to the site

To all the family members who have helped from behind the main campaign

Wigan Council employees (No, seriously...)

whose staff (eg Lynn Mappin) were kept working flat out dealing with the constant avalanche of e-mails, letters, phone calls and face-to-face appointments that the various members of our group had for them over the last 12 months. They are a real credit to the Council and also deserve our thanks in that they answered all our questions so professionally, promptly and courteously, giving us the information we needed to support our Village Green application

There have been so many of you who have helped in this campaign, if we have missed you out please accept our sincerest apologies and e-mail us to ensure that your name is added to the above list.
